Notes on buying a ukelele

- If you're buying a ukelele for the first time, please don't buy a cheap toy, tuning can be impossible. make sure at least it has tuning gears. A good instrument will be an investment.
- Beginner ukulele I would recommend is Makala Dolphins: <https://kalabrand.com/collections/makala-dolphins/>
- Ukuleles come in all shapes and sizes. There are three sizes to begin with:
 - Soprano = small
 - Concert = medium
 - Tenor = larger
- Don't start children on a baritone ukulele, as barre chords etc are involved too early on.
- Here's a comprehensive range of most ukulele brands: <http://ukulelehunt.com/buy-ukulele/categories/ukulele-brands/>
- Shops that sell a good range of instruments are:- Hobgoblin music (off Oxford St) or Duke of Uke shop, near Brick Lane, <https://www.dukeofuke.co.uk/>
