

Dear Parents,

This week we are learning the following sounds:

/g/ (saying: j) in gem, magic, giant and ginger

/c/ (saying: s) in cell, city, face and slice

The tricky words to focus on for reading and spelling are:

Monday, Tuesday (reading)

many, laughed (spelling)

We encourage you to read the stories to your child and ask them to do the different tasks.

These might include:

- Reading words or sentences out loud
- Writing words in the air
- Writing words on paper
- Finding words

We suggest doing one powerpoint a day.

g saying /j/

A Magic Carpet Ride

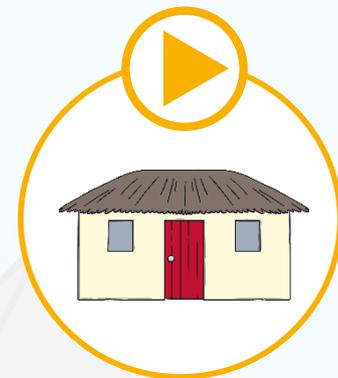

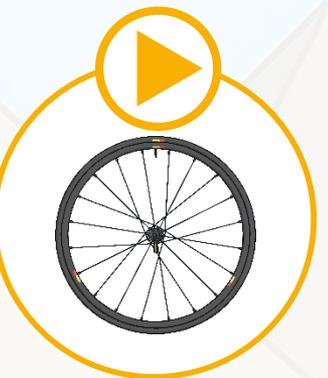

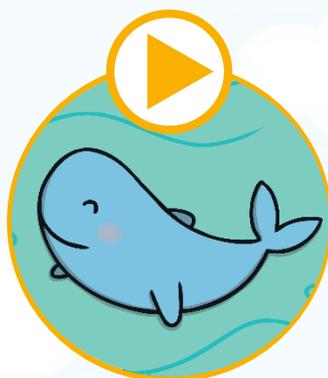

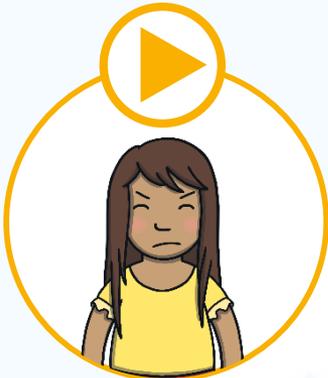

twinkl

Let's revisit last week's focus words...

I'll say them and you write them down!

Revisit and Review

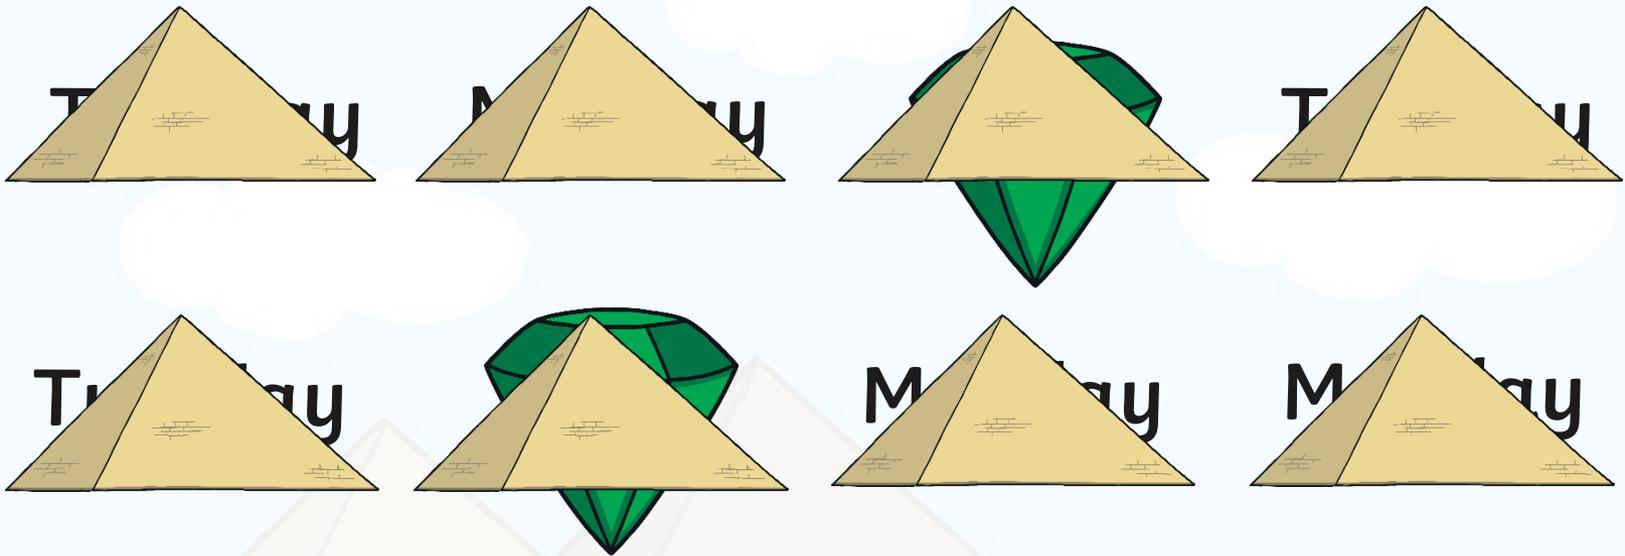

Here are this week's focus words for reading...

Monday
Tuesday

Hidden Gems

Click on the pyramids to reveal the common exception words and gems.

Today, we are learning to read words that contain g saying /j/.

When the grapheme 'g' is before an 'e', 'i' or 'y', its sound is soft and it makes the /j/ sound.

X

Click me for Kit's teaching tips!

Sometimes, g makes a /j/ sound.
Let's say these examples:

gem

magic

ginger

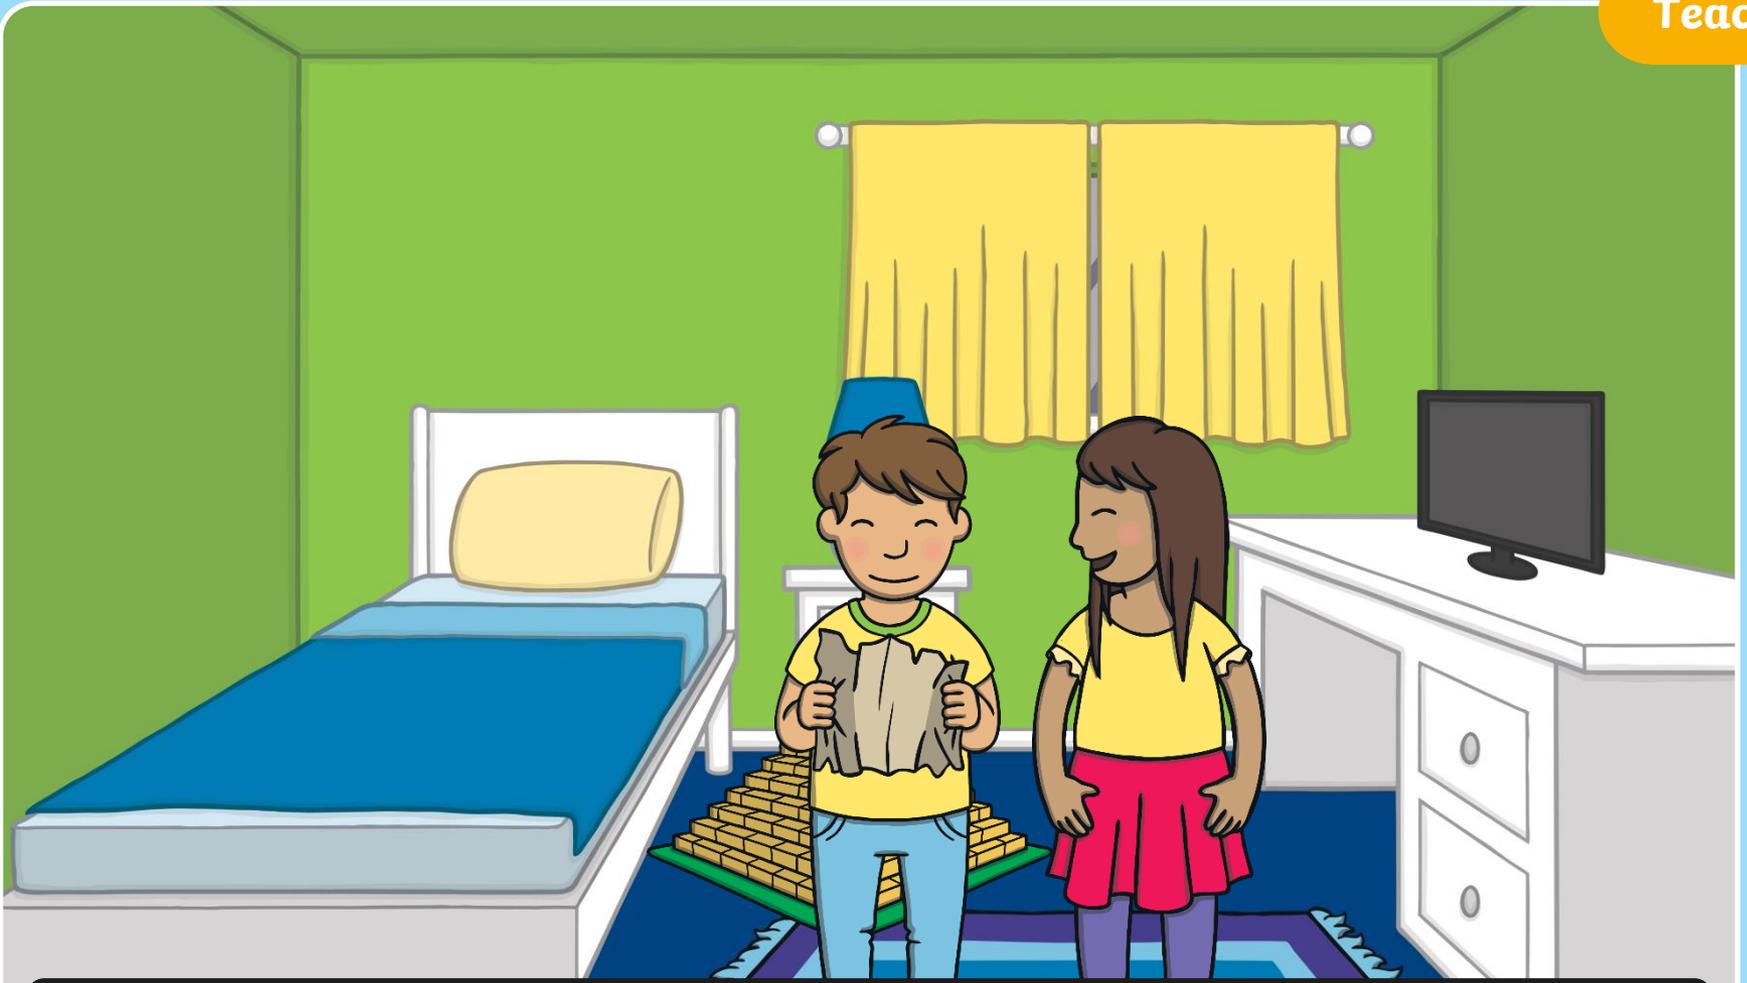

Kit and Sam were building pyramids out of bricks in Kit's bedroom. They were making an Egyptian scene. "Our scene looks great!" said Sam.

“It does,” said Kit. “I wish we could go and see the pyramids in Egypt for real.” Kit and Sam smiled at each other. “Let’s get the magic map!” they said.

Kit opened the magic map. “To Egypt!” he shouted. The bedroom rug became a magic flying carpet and the room began to fade around them...

Kit and Sam are off on a magic carpet adventure! Can you read the g saying /j/ words on these flying carpets and click the matching picture?

ginger

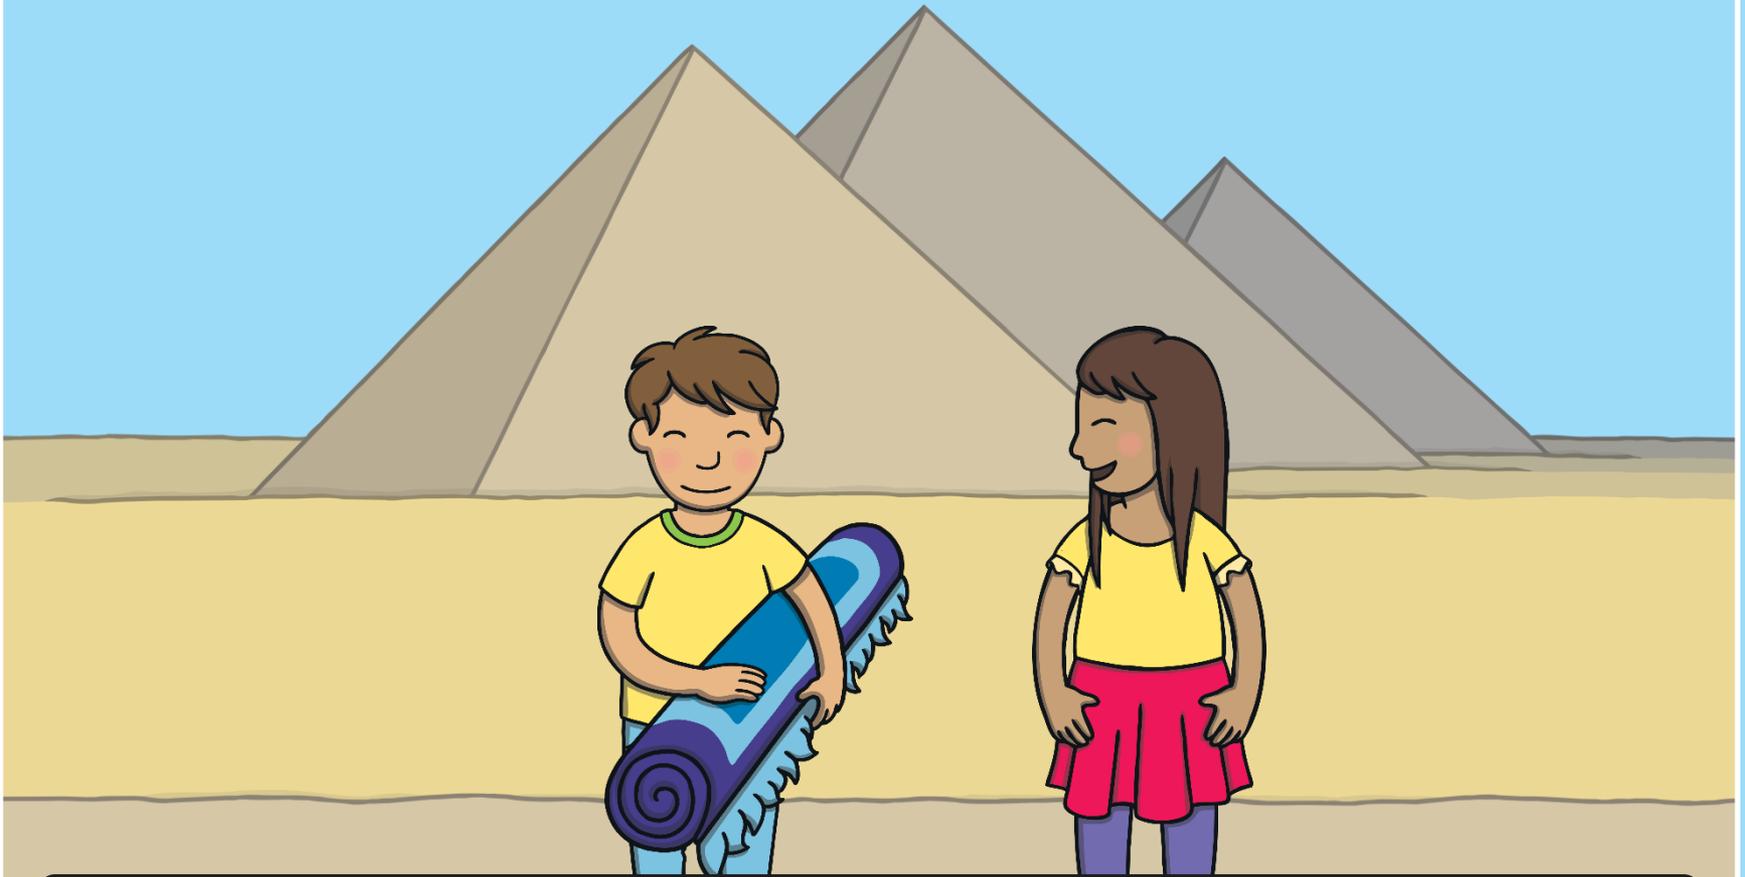

g I Spy

Kit and Sam are flying over Egypt.
Can you spot any g words as they go?

“Let’s take a look around,” said Kit, rolling up the magic carpet.
“Good plan,” said Sam. “Hmm... it’s very quiet. Where are all the people?”

Sentence Time

Sam is wondering where all the people are. What does she whisper to Kit? Read the sentence then click 'Show' to reveal the answer!

I hope we are not in any danger in this huge desert!

Sound Buttons On/Off

Show

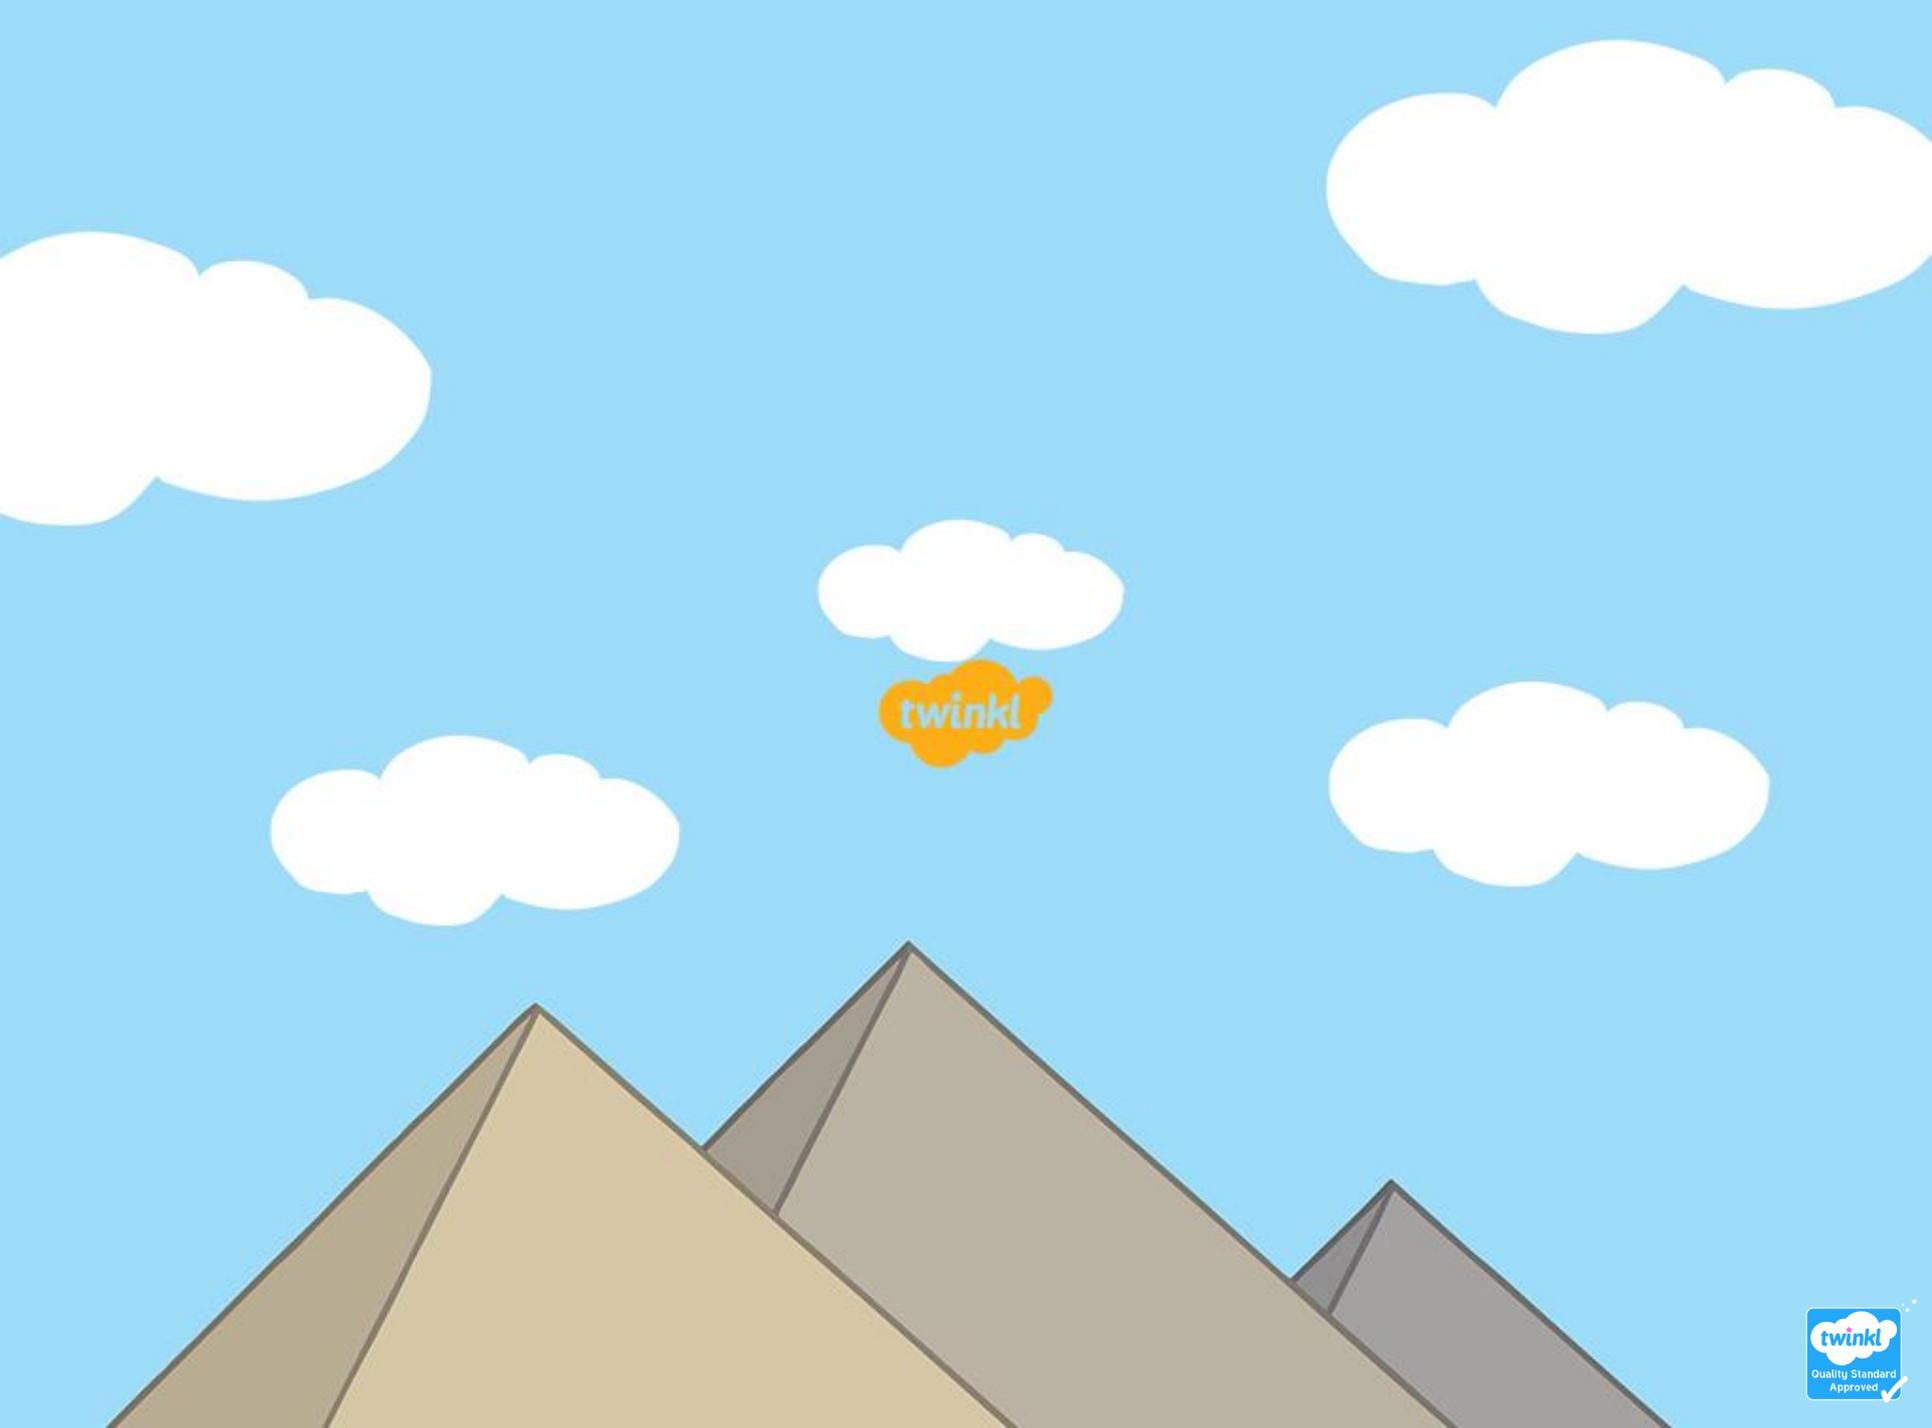

Suddenly, a boy in Egyptian clothes came running towards them.
He looked scared.
“Who is this...?” said Kit.

Today, we have learnt...

g saying /j/

The adventure continues next lesson!

twinkl