

ea saying /e/

A Trip Out

Let's practise Sam's Sounds and Common Exception Words!

A rectangular card with a yellow border. At the top, the word "dolphin" is written in a large, bold, black font that has been completely blacked out. Below the text is an illustration of a blue dolphin wearing a yellow life vest and blue shoes, holding a large green leaf. The background shows a cityscape with buildings and a blue sky with clouds. At the bottom center of the card is a yellow play button icon inside a circle.

A rectangular card with a yellow border. In the center, the word "dolphin" is written in a large, bold, black font that has been completely blacked out. At the bottom center of the card is a yellow play button icon inside a circle.

Today, we are learning to read words that contain ea saying /e/.

'ea' saying /e/ is often found in the middle of words.

Click me for Kit's teaching tips!

Let's practise reading some of this week's focus words that contain the ea saying /e/ sound.

head

bread ready deaf

Now, let's write them with the magic pencil...

head

Play

bread

Play

ready

Play

deaf

Play

Dear all,

Wednesday 5th

On Friday, we will be going on a surprise trip with the children. Heather will be coming, too!

Please make sure that the children have had a good breakfast before they come, as it will be a long day. They will need coats as the weather is likely to be cold.

Please be ready to go by 8.30 a.m.

Thank you,
Mrs Tan

The following Wednesday in school, Mrs Tan gave the children a letter to take home to their parents. "How exciting," said Sam, reading the letter. "We're going on a surprise school trip on Friday and it says here that Heather is coming too!"

That Friday, the children arrived at school and got straight onto a coach that was waiting outside for them. “This is exciting!” said Jake. “I wonder where we are going.”

It was a long journey and the children soon began to get bored. "Let's play a game," suggested Lily. "I've brought one with me. It's called Pairs" "OK," said Sam, "I'm ready!"

Pairs

Turn over 2 cards. If the word matches the picture, you get to keep the cards. If not, try again.

Hint: Each word has ea in it!

This is a great game to play as a class!

X

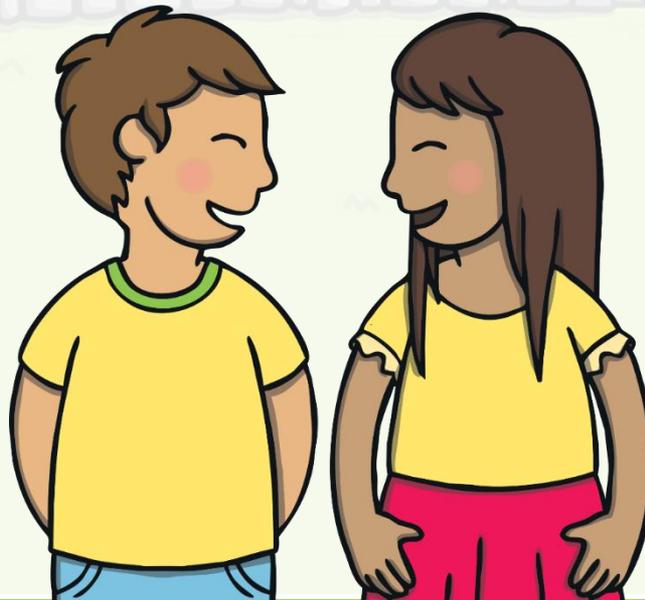

Click me for Kit's teaching tips!

Rhyme Time

Next, Kit teaches everyone a new game. He writes a word at the top of the page and then writes a list of words underneath. Each player takes it in turns to read a word and decide whether it rhymes with the word or not. If they are correct, they score a point!

Why don't you have a go?

Rhymes

Does not rhyme

bread

head

lead

bead

dread plead dead

Eventually, the coach arrived outside a large stadium. “Welcome to the Cross-County Basketball Tournament,” said Heather, with an enormous grin. You were all so enthusiastic about last week’s PE lesson, I thought you would like to see some real games in action!”

Inside the stadium, lots of different teams were getting ready to play. “Hey, look over there,” shouted Heather, waving. “That is my deaf basketball youth team getting ready to play. They have been working so hard. I hope they do well!”

Sentence Time

What is Sam thinking as she looks at all the teams? Read the sentence below and then click 'Show' to reveal the picture.

I wish I was on one of these teams getting ready to play!

Sound Buttons On/Off

Show

Just then, a whistle blew. “Quick, we will need to sit down before the tournament starts,” said Heather. “Be careful not to tread on people’s feet as you go to your seat.”

“Ouch, steady as you go!” hissed Sam, as Kit trod on her foot.

The first game to be played was between the Teatherton Tigers and the Readywell Rockets. “Wow,” whispered Lily. “I’ve never seen wheelchair basketball played live before. It is so exciting to watch!”

Jake suddenly nudged Kit hard in the ribs. “Do you want to have some more fun?” he asked.

Today, we have learnt...

ea

saying /e/

The adventure continues next lesson!

