

wh saying /w/

The Iron Age

twinkl

Let's practise Sam's Sounds and Common Exception Words!

A cartoon illustration of a girl with a red headscarf holding a large white bowl filled with a stew of meat and vegetables. Above her are large, bold, black letters that appear to be a phonetic representation of the word 'stew'. Below the illustration is a yellow play button icon inside a circle.

A cartoon illustration of a girl with a red headscarf holding a large white bowl filled with a stew of meat and vegetables. Above her are large, bold, black letters that appear to be a phonetic representation of the word 'stew'. Below the illustration is a yellow play button icon inside a circle.

This week, we are learning to spell the common exception words work and house.

Watch the magic pencil write the words. Can you join in?

work

Play

house

Play

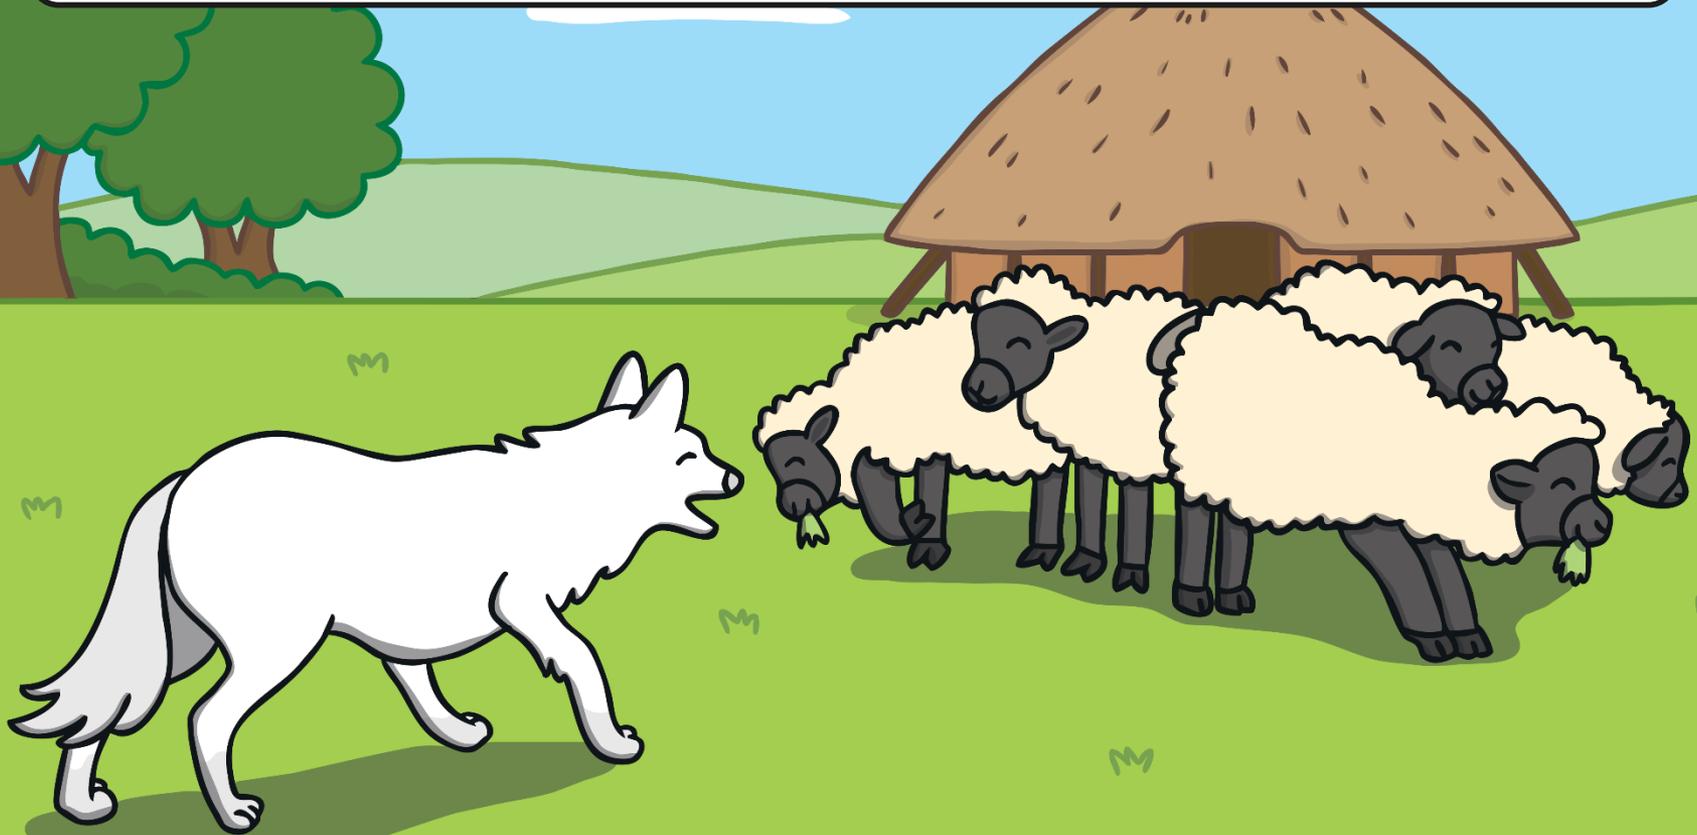

Today, we are learning to write words that contain
wh saying /w/.

Ben and the white dog ran around the lady with the long dress. “Calm down, boys!” said the lady. Then, the man from the cart called out something. Immediately, the dog ran to him.

For a while, Ben watched what the white dog was doing. Then, Ben decided to follow him and join in. The dog was busy rounding up a flock of sheep. Ben thought chasing sheep would be fun!

Ben enjoyed helping round up the sheep. He loved being outside in the fresh air. However, he soon got tired. Being a working dog on a farm was hard work. When Ben saw the lady in the long dress approach him, he stopped and stared at her.

Dress Patterns

Ben notices a pattern on the ladies dress. It looks a bit like jumbled up letters. Rearrange the jumbled letters to make real words.
Write down the words.

The answers will all be 'wh' words. You can remind the children that 'wh' usually goes at the beginning of the word.

Click me for Kit's teaching tips!

wh ff i whiff

i p wh

whip

s k i wh

whisk

ir wh l

whirl

Click on the lady to check if you correctly spelt the words.

Ben's Thoughts

Ben starts to relax for a moment with his mind drifting off. Write down what Ben is thinking about.

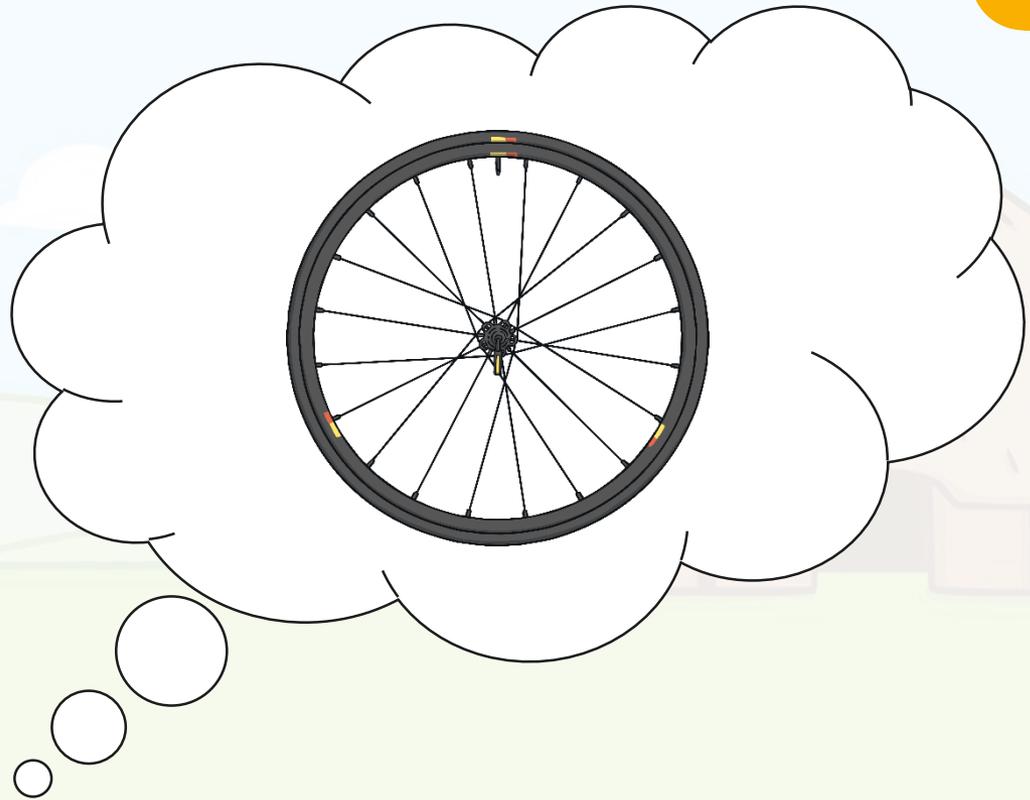

This is a great whiteboard activity.

Click me for Kit's teaching tips!

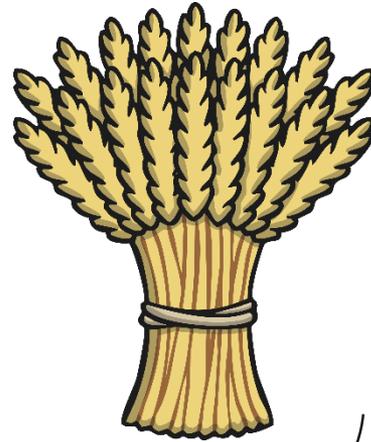

wheel

Check

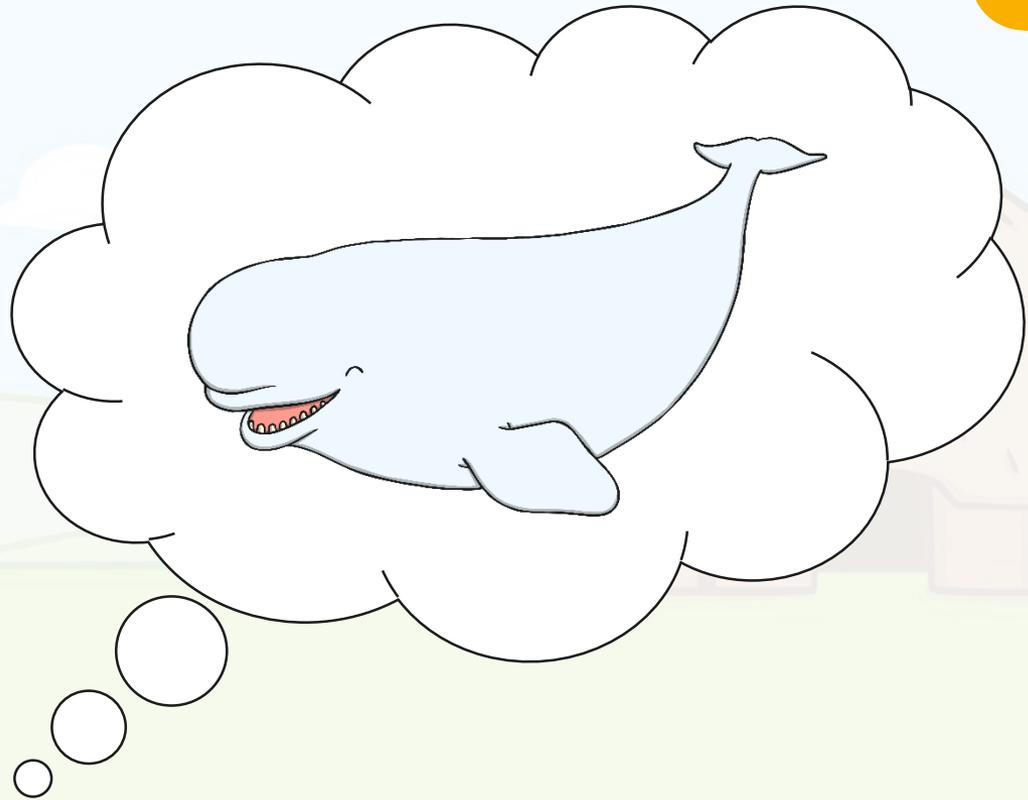

wheat

Show

white whale

Show

wheelchair

Show

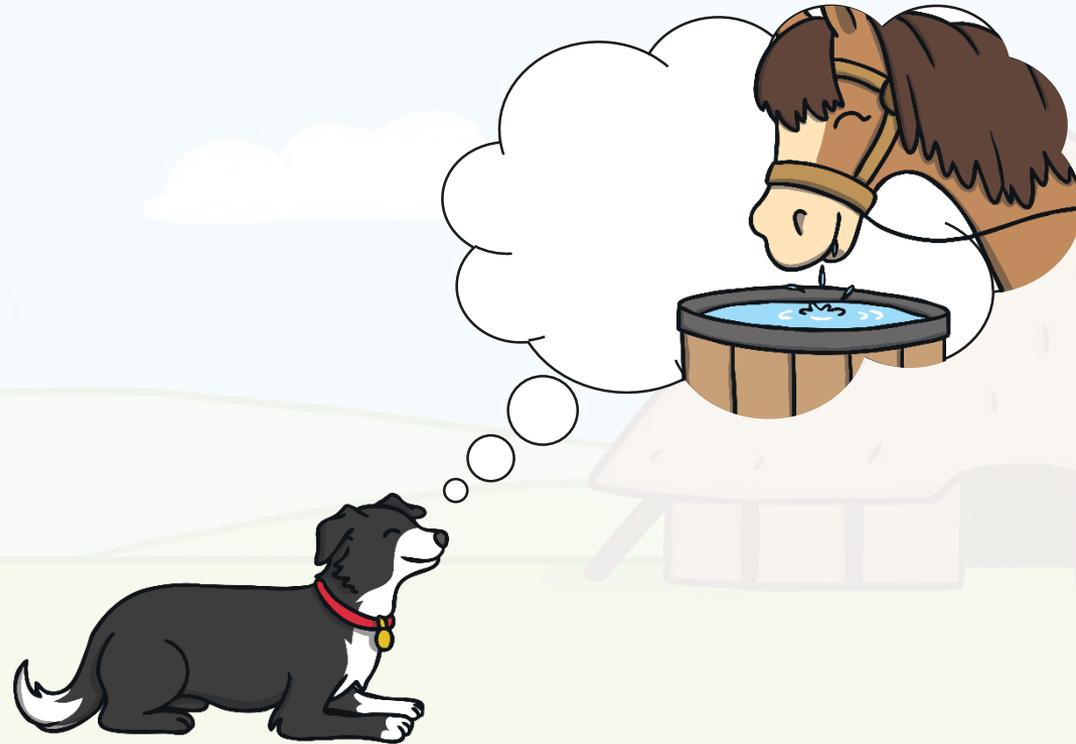

The lady looked down at Ben and patted his head. “I think you are a tired dog after all of that work,” she said. “Let’s go and get some water to cool you down.”

Sentence Time

Ben is a very tired and thirsty dog. What is he hoping the lady will give him? Look at the picture and write a sentence to match.

I hope she lets me have a big bucket of water like a horse has.

Sound Buttons On/Off

Show

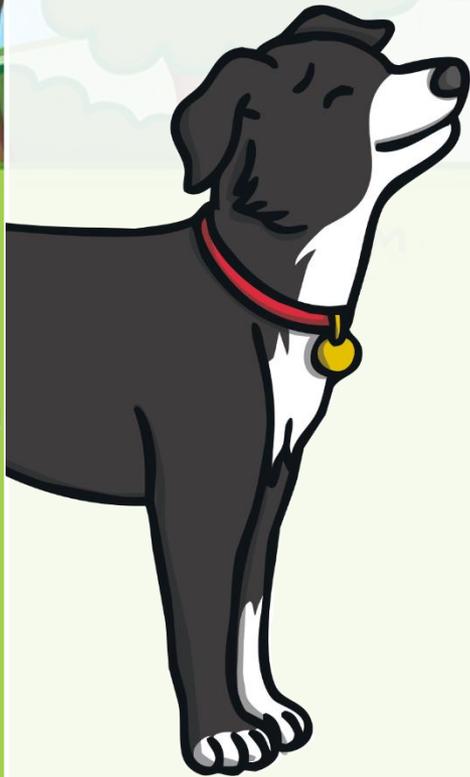

Ben was so relieved to have a drink. While he was drinking, he heard lots of loud banging in the background. Quickly, Ben turned around. 'What was that?' he wondered.

Today, we have learnt...

wh

saying /w/

The adventure continues next lesson!

twinkl