Today, we are learning to read words that contain ie saying /ee/.

The children followed the knight up a grand staircase and into a large room. This was the solar room. Once, it would have been used by one of the family members of Highfields Estate.

It's a room to relax in, as well as a bedroom.

"Oh, I thought solar was something to do with the sun and heat!" giggled Jake to Kit.

“Wow! Look at that bed!” gasped Sam in surprise.

“This room is very posh!” Gabi said in delight.

“I would love to have a big bed like that! It is so high that you need steps to get to the top tier!” Sam said.

"That bed looks enormous!" exclaimed Kit to Jake. "I think a king or prince would have slept in here."

"Yeah, it is definitely for someone important... I know! For the chief of this place, King Jake!" joked Jake.

"You mean, King Kit! It sounds better!" laughed Kit.

Mrs Tan takes some photos on her tablet. She notices the beautiful tapestry hanging on the wall. Click on the tapestries to spell each word.

They are all 'ie' words. The 'ie' goes in the middle of the word.

Solar Room Hidden Pictures

Find the ie pictures hidden in the room.
Write down the words.

Hint: There are four to find.

This is a great whiteboard activity.

Check

After a short time in the solar room, everyone followed the knight out of it.

"I wonder where we are off to now?" Kit said to Jake.

"I don't know. I hope it is warm as this castle is freezing!" replied Kit.

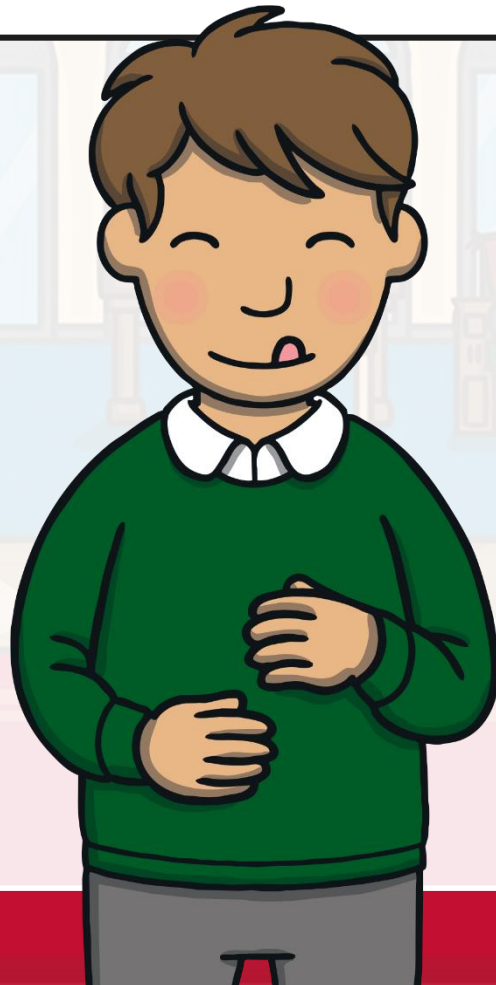

“Imagine what it would have been like here in January when it was snowing!” said Jake. Kit was too cold to reply.

Sentence Time

Kit and Jake are enjoying the tour around the castle. However, they are both very hungry! Look at the picture and write a sentence to match.

Once we have had a brief stroll around, let's hope we can have lunch!

After visiting several other rooms in Highfields Estate, it was lunchtime. All of the children were ready for some food. Thankfully, much to Kit's relief, no thief had been in and taken his lunch box! "Once you have all eaten your lunch, we are going to visit the dungeon," exclaimed the knight. Gabi smiled at Sam. That sounded fun!

Today, we have learnt...
