

The Magic Box by Celine

I will put in the box,
A pretty kitty and a cute puppy,
Playing together with a ball.

The snowy, ice crunch,
Where I put my feet.

I will put in the box,
The taste of spicy noodles,
Slurpy in my mouth and it feels like fire.
The smell of rainbow popcorn,
With gummy bears.

I will put in my box,
The rainbow sky on my sister's birthday,
Shiny and brighting.

I will put in my box,
The feel of a bright, white horse,
That feels fluffy and shiny.
A hug for my mom and dad.

My box is made from rainbow popcorn.

It has sparkly glitter with flowers on the golden lid,
And sweets in the corners.

Its hinges are the pink of the rainbow,
And its handles are fluffy.
